FOREIGN.
CABLE.
The particulars of the arrest of George Francis Train so early cause for the report of the English authorities, and the search for Train's own characteristic speeches. His baggage and person was subjected to the most rigorous examination by the custom officers, and nothing of an incendiary or seditious character found. After the search he was allowed to go on shore, but as soon as he stepped from the steamer he was arrested, and taken before a justice of the peace, but the examination eliciting nothing against him, he was discharged; immediately after his arrival at his hotel he was re-arrested and placed in Cork Jail. He has, however, since been released, and brings suit against the English Government for $100,000. The action is threatened directly at present in Waterford county, has proved, as usual, greatly exaggerated. By the measures taken by the Italian Government to suppress the right of invasion of the States of the Church, eighteen millions have been added to the expenditures for the past year.

Congressional Summary.
SENATE.—Several petitions were presented and referred.
Mr. Patterson, from the Committee on Reconstruction, reported a bill to amend the act of March 3, 1867, to provide for the payment of bounties to soldiers who were called up, and postponed.

Consideration of Portion of New Tax Bill Relative to Manufactures—Fifth Annual Report of the American Colonization Society.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, January 21.

The Committee on Ways and Means, to-day, under consideration that part of the new tax bill which relates to manufactures.

While it is certain they will recommend that the tariff be raised on manufactures, there is evidently a disposition on the part of the committee to keep the tax on articles of luxury, such as jewelry, plate, carriages, and the like, and also on gas and coal oil.

It is probable that the tax will be removed from raw cotton. The bill will not be reported for several weeks to come.
